contrary be was notably generous and forbearing in spite of great provoca-uon The whole affair, however, caused a vast turmoil of emotions which are clearly reflected in contemporary literature So long as Essex was aUe, there was perpetual danger of anarchy

27th February CATHOLICS EXECUTED RutlandMSS , i 369

ist March THE SERMON AT PAUL'S CROSS STC, 1454> AR, 111 181 , entered iSth March The official account of the execution is appended

A COMPLAINT AGAINST THE SHERIFF OF NORFOLK A P C, xxxi 194

^rd March A TREATISE UPON TRADE A R ₜm i&i, S T C, i 7227
A most interesting discussion of the principles of trade, exchange, the gold and silver standard, inflation and deflation, and similar financial and economic problems

$th March AN EMBASSY FROM SCOTLAND Winwood's Memorials, i 30*

THE CONSPIRATORS CONDEMNED Cobbett's State Tnals, i 1410-1451

nth March SEDITIOUS BOOKS APC, xxxi 216 See II Ehx Journal,? 333

THE EARL OF RUTLAND Rutland MSS, i 373

PLAYS TO BE SUPPRESSED IN LENT A P C, xxxi 218

itfh March THE PRISONERS IN THE TOWER A P C, xxxi 222

MERRICK AND CUFFE EXECUTED Cobbett's State Trials, i 1411

i6th March THE CITY WATCHES DISMISSED A P C, xxxi 229

MR BACON TO WRITE AN ACCOUNT OF THE LATE TROUBLES S P Dom , 279 28 , Speddmg's Bacon, DC 240

ilth March THE EXECUTION OF SIR CHARLES DANVERS AND SIR CHRIS FOPHER BLOUNT Stow's Annals

zoth March THE EARL OF ESSEX'S SON A P C, xxxi 229

24//I March STRANGE RUMOURS Smith's Diary, f 55*

2S//5 March IRELAND SP Ireland, 208, i 122

27^ March A LEWD LIBEL S P Dom, 278 23 , pnnted in Mrs C C Stopes* Ltftof Henry>Thtrd Earl of Southampton, ? 234 Three of seven stanzas are here quoted The libel was apparently popular, as at least three contemporary copies survive

30^ March THE AMBASSADOR AND THE FRENCH KING Wmwood's Memorials, i 309

A BOOK OF DON SEBASTIAN *AR, wi₉ STC, 23864 See p 4

5<ft Apnl A PROCLAMATION CONCERNING LIBELS

Proclamations, 386.

f^{pc}»f^^

Elizabethan sanitary arrangements in the City were crude |he praruce apparently was for the ordure from private houses to be collected m^e jakes cart which dumped its contents on waste ground or in barges for disposal elsewhere